

Case Study II

Client struggled with tongue placement, open mouth and incorrect swallow. Client also had a hard time controlling saliva. Seem to mumble a lot and had poor posture.

After 9 weeks of therapy because of better tongue posture (rutter to the spine), clients head and neck position were positioned better. Mouth opeing so much better as well as better controll over tongue movement. Lastly better saliva control.

